Washington Times, which is the influential newspaper to USA government and the political world, celebrated its 30 anniversary. Since Washington Times was founded in May 17, 1982 by Rev. Sun Myung Moon who passed away recently, it has represented the voice of the conservative camp. Washington Times is the multimedia press with newspaper, broadcasting and internet.

Unificationism held the special lecture of commemorating Rev. Sun Myung Moon who passed away recently on October 5, 2012 at the sanctuary of World Headquarter Church. That was for shedding new light on Rev. Sun Myung Moon’s life and works which was hidden because of lots of misunderstanding and prejudice.
